KPFK SWITCHBOARD

(818) 985-2711

9 AM to 5 PM, Monday - Friday

1989 marks a historic milestone for KPFK as we celebrate our thirty years of public broadcasting service to the Southern California area. The Pacifica Foundation and KPFA in Berkeley, likewise will be celebrating their forty years throughout this anniversary year. A number of special events have been planned by Pacifica, including a series of special fortieth anniversary programs from Pacifica's archives, national programming, and gala anniversary celebrations in Berkeley and Los Angeles. Details will be provided in our program guide in the coming months. KPFK officially celebrates its 30th anniversary on July 26th of this year.

The search for a new General Manager of KPFK still continues. The deadline for resume's has been extended again, to January 3, 1989. Interested applicants should send a cover letter and resume to David Salniker, Executive Director, Pacifica Foundation, 2207 Shattuck Ave., Berkeley, CA. 94704. Applicants will be screened and interviewed by a search committee composed of two members of KPFK's paid staff, two members of KPFK's Local Advisory Board, two members of the unpaid staff (1 programmer, and 1 volunteer), and the Executive Director of the foundation, David Salniker. The search committee will then make its recommendation to the Executive Director who will then turn that recommendation over to the Pacifica National Board, who has the final authority to hire and fire General Managers. It seems likely that this process will continue throughout the month of January and possibly into February, which means that I will have at least one Report left to write for you, and possibly two.

There is also an additional job posting on the KPFK staff for a half time production assistant. The deadline for applications for this position is February 1st. To send a resume or for more information, contact Tarabu Betserai, General Manager, KPFK, 3729 Cahuenga Blvd. West, North Hollywood, CA. 91604.

Last January many of our subscribers will remember KPFK's extremely successful conference in Culver City entitled The Media and U.S. Foreign Policy. The conference was co-sponsored with Fairness and Accuracy in Reporting, the LA Weekly, and the Midnight Special Bookstore, and featured internationally recognized speakers such as Noam Chomsky, James Zogby, Alexander Cockburn and Herbert Schiller to name a few. This year KPFK and FAIR will be sponsoring an encore production with a lineup of speakers that will be equally impressive. The conference title this year will be The Media and U.S. Domestic Policy and the one day conference will be held at Pasadena City College on Saturday, March 18th. The facilities at Pasadena City College are ideal for this type conference and we are anticipating another sell-out crowd. In addition, parts of the conference will be broadcast nationally to the Pacifica network around the country and other community stations. Next month in the Folio a conference program will be listed. In the meantime, we are looking for volunteers who are interested in working on committees to pull this conference together. This is a major effort and anyone with conference experience or those just interested in supporting the effort please contact Tarabu Betserai or Pamela Burton at KPFK, (818) 985-2711.

Last month KPFK and the LA Weekly were honored by the Northeast Democratic Club with awards of merit for coverage during the recent presidential elections. The Freedom of the Press award for fairness and accuracy in reporting was presented by the Northeast Democratic Club's chair Bob Farran. Thanks also to Ruth Harmen Carew for her work in recognizing KPFK. Two other awards were also received by KPFK that night, one from Congressman Edward Roybal's office and one from State Senator Art Torres' office, both for exemplary public service.

KPFK Station Board Meeting

The meeting will take place Tuesday, January 17, at 7:30 PM, at the station. Among the agenda items will be activities regarding KPFK's 30th birthday.

JANUARY 1989

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

Sunday January 1 Noon

SOUNDS OF CELEBRATION-It's an old KPFK tradition: every New Year's Day Mario Casetta starts us off right with a marvelous assortment of sounds (notice we say "sounds" instead of "music" because anything might happen.) It will be four hours of pure pleasure with Inuit throat singing, Tuvan hoomie music, Cathedrals, harmonicas, Venezuelan jazz joropo, the Singing Towers of the Netherlands and Subramaniam teamed with Stephane Grapelli. Treat upon treat upon treat. Are you listening?

Monday January 2 8:00 AM

TOURNAMENT OF ROSES PARADE-Sick and tired of the smell of roses? From our vast port-studio within the spacious Pacifica dirigible, join Commandante Baldy, Scout, Commandante Crash and Commandante Bob (that's Bob spelled backwards) for the first four-dimensional Rose Parade broadcast in exciting Mega-optified Quadrennial Sound! The Tournament of Roses never looked like this before! With the aid of friends and special guest celebrities, KPFK will become the first radio station in the known universe to broadcast the Rose Parade in 4-D! Join us and help make the 100th Annual Rose Parade a thing of special beauty and reverence. Many special features and, many featured special events. This will be the most complete parade coverage you can stomach. A Whole Hog Production, in association with KPFK.

Monday January 2 11:00 AM

CONVERSATIONS WITH NOAM CHOMSKY-The Nation magazine called Chomsky "the most valuable critic of American power we have." In this program he is interviewed by David Barsamian on topics which include the system of indoctrination, the function of intellectuals, the role and control of information, techniques of marginalization, the relationship between domestic social structures and US foreign policy and the US as a depoliticized society.

MIDWEEK-This new program will include a variety of public affairs and cultural features. During the month of January, Midweek will present the program described below, among others. (Wednesdays, 3:30 - 5:00 PM)

HOW DO WE KNOW WHEN WE'RE FACISTS?-Historian Clare Spark will examine facism — yesterday, today and tomorrow. In this five-part series, Clare and her guests will tackle many aspects of the question, including the development of right-wing propaganda since the Russian Revolution. Part 1 will be a New Year's special (January 2, 4-6 PM), and the balance of the series will air on Midweek, at 4 PM.

THE TIMES, THEY ARE A CHANGIN'-Several programs will be broadcast at new times, beginning this month. Feminist Magazine will move to Wednesdays at 5 PM; Spotlight on Africa will be heard on the 2nd and 4th Mondays at 5 PM; Health Views in the News will be on the 4th Friday at 7 PM; Consumer Awareness and Food for the Thoughtful will be on the 2nd and 4th Tuesdays at 3 and 3:30 PM; Movement Los Angeles hosted by the National Coalition of Black Lawyers will be on the 2nd Wednesday at 8 PM, and hosted by Ken Carr on the 4th Wednesday at 8 PM; and Green Perspectives will be on the 2nd and 4th Mondays at 3 PM.

Who are those people?

The Pacifica Apprenticeship Program welcomes eight cheerful new faces to KPFK. This brings the total number of apprentices at the station to 17. Makia, the first group, which began their training in June, 1988, is continuing their hands-on production training. This training has been augmented by workshops in news writing, radio drama and interviewing techniques, among others too numerous to list here.

Thanks to all those who have given so much to make the apprenticeship program successful. The apprentices look forward to increased involvement in production assistance at KPFK, and greater integration within the station.

The apprenticeship program was designed to enhance the broadcast environment by encouraging the participation of women and people from a variety of cultures. This is an ongoing program, and no previous radio experience is required to apply. For more information contact: Director of Training, KPFK, 3729 Cahuenga Blvd. west, North Hollywood, Cal. 91604.

SPECIAL DOCUMENTARY SERIES

Documentary filmmakers feel a passionate and deep commitment to their subject, often spending years on the research and preparation of their films. Documentaries offer the viewer an opportunity to heighten one's awareness of various social and political issues. We, at Laemmle Theatres, are proud to present four such films, as part of our Saturday-Sunday morning special programming series. All four have been shown at numerous international film festivals and all have been submitted for Academy Award consideration as Best Documentary Feature of 1988. We hope you will take advantage of this opportunity to see these four, fascinating, non-fiction dramas.
